ZELAYA'S LIFE IS IN DANGER

MEXICAN OFFICIALS WARN EX-PRESIDENT OF PLOT AGAINST HIM.

IS ADVISED TO ARM HIMSELF

Mexican Police Give Tip That an American and Two Salvadoreans Are in Capital Ready to Take Life.

City of Mexico, Jan. 7.—Jose Santos Zelaya was warned by officials here that the police authorities are in receipt of secret information that two Salvadoreans and an American are in the City of Mexico and are only awaiting a favorable opportunity to take his life.

Officials of the police department have advised Zelaya to arm himself and prepare for any emergency that may arise in which his life might be placed in jeopardy. They have also detailed two of the best men in the secret service to accompany him whenever he leaves his rooms and to keep a close watch over every one entering his hotel.

It is known that Zelaya has exhibited some little nervousness since coming to the City of Mexico and that he is never without a pistol. It is reported that he carried a small Derringer in one of the side pockets of his coat.

Exiled Many Persons.

During the sixteen years that Zelaya ruled over Nicaragua many people were exiled from that country, and hence he has many bitter enemies, some of whom are gloating over his recent misfortunes. Zelaya and his friends know that he is heartily hated by those who left Nicaragua when he was in power, and they are alert every minute in the day to observe any untoward action that may be taken by any one.

Friends of Zelaya said today that the titular President of Nicaragua has decided to buy a hacienda in Mexico and live out in the rural districts. If this is true he is not evidently planning to take any early trip to Europe.

Diaz Congratulates Madrid.

City of Mexico, Jan. 6.—President Diaz today sent a congratulatory telegram to President Madrid of Nicaragua. It was in reply to one received from Madrid, stating that he was now the head of the government formerly presided over by Jose Santos Zelaya.

The report that these communications had just passed between the two executives was confirmed at the foreign office late this afternoon.

Francisco Castro, Nicaraguan minister to Mexico, has asked his government for a leave of absence, and it is believed that it is equivalent to a resignation. Minister Castro hopes to leave soon for his home in Nicaragua, and it is thought here that he will not return. He is a close friend of Zelaya and has been much in the company of the former since he arrived in this capital.

TRUST FIGHT GOES TO TAFT

STEEL CORPORATION EXISTS DESPITE ANTI-TRUST LAW LABOR SAYS.

Charges That the Combine Boycotts American Labor—Advertises for Foreign Laborers—Investigation Promised.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The American federation of labor, through a committee headed by Samuel Gompers, James O'Connell and other union leaders, today carried its fight against the United States Steel Corporation to President Taft. The committee presented a formal paper, in which it set forth fourteen different charges of illegality against the corporation and asked for an immediate investigation of the so-called trust.

The president promised to take the matter up with the secretary of commerce and labor and with labor commissioner Neill.

The first charge against the steel corporation is that it is an illegal combination existing in defiance of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The labor leaders claim that if the government officials will, as they have done in the cases of the Standard Oil Company and the tobacco trust, present to a competent court the facts concerning the steel corporation conviction would logically follow.

Say Law Can Reach It.

"It is not to be doubted," says the letter to the president, "that the law and courts can reach this monopoly even if its annual revenue is counted in the hundreds of millions of dollars. Its power of wealth must not be permitted to paralyze the arm of the law."

"Founded Upon Tariff."

It is charged that that this so-called "great American industry," founded upon the tariff enacted for the protection of American labor from the competition of the pauper labor of Europe, is speedily and effectually excluding American labor, skilled and unskilled from its employment, and has again and again advertised that "Syrians, Poles and Roumanians are preferred," as its employees.

It is charged that the steel corporation "not only degrades labor by low wages and a twelve-hour workday, but denies a day of rest by enforcing work seven days in the week; that it tyrannically prevents the organization of its workers to elevate the standard of living and suppresses and prevents free speech and public meetings, so that it boycotts American labor and has enforced decrees of banishment from communities where it dominates."

"Dominant and Defiant."

In conclusion, it is charged that the steel corporation is organized illegally, dominant and defiant with no respect for legal right and human right and with brutal indifference as to human capacity for endurance and for deaths and injury of its toilers, that its continued methods are a menace not only to labor, but to the business men outside of its baneful power and influence.

Curtiss Says He Will Fly.

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 7.—Declaring that he knew nothing of any injunction issued against him on behalf of the Wright Brothers, Glenn H. Curtiss, who arrived in Los Angeles from the East today asserted that he would enter as many of the events at the aviation meet next week as possible.

Many Arrests at El Paso.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 7.—Police Chief Jenkin's annual report might be construed to show that one-tenth of El Paso's population was arrested last year. His figures submitted today, show that the total arrests for the year were 5,922. The city's population is a little more than 50,000.

WOODMEN OF WORLD AND CIRCLE INSTALL OFFICERS

CITY HALL SCENE OF ENJOYABLE OCCASION.

State and National Members Present and Make Instructive Addresses.

The Woodmen of the World and Woodmen Circle installed officers at the city hall last night and the installation was one of the most enjoyable and beneficial occasions of the kind ever transpiring in the city. The program as rendered showed much time and care to have been devoted to it and included Woodmen of state and national reputations.

On entering the auditorium a reception was given after which the members of the two lodges registered at the table where a delicious brand of punch was served. Order was then called and the program given. The address of welcome was made by Hon. T. D. McKeown and was responded to by Mrs. M. J. Meadows of Oklahoma City, who is the state manager of the Circle.

The drill by sixteen girls was very commendable and the reading by Miss Lena West and the solo by Miss Ruby Eaton deserve special mention. Music by the orchestra was excellent. The Circle ladies took part in a splendid drill.

Billy Hughes of St. Louis, National W. O. W. lecturer, delivered a lecture on "Fraternalism" which, it is needless to say, was well received.

Mr. Hughes has visited many camps and said that he had seen more fraternity in the local camp than in any one which he has visited.

R. L. Forgan, state manager of the W. O. W. spoke on "Statistics," of which he gave many on Woodcraft, in this state among which was that there were nearly 26,000 members of the Woodmen of the World in Oklahoma.

Following the program the Circle installed the following officers: Guardian—Mrs. Minerva Sneed.

Advisor—Mrs. J. W. Reed. Clerk—Miss Beulah Havlin. Banker—Mrs. Ola Kile. Attendant—Mrs. Lillie West. Chaplain—Mrs. Julia Pool. Inner Sentinel—Mrs. Robertson. Outer Sentinel—Mrs. Fannie Dismukes.

Drill Captain—Mrs. Beulah Neath-erington. The officers installed by the W. O. W. follow:

Consul Commander—D. L. Middleton. Advisor Lieutenant—Jos. Deckert. Banker—C. T. Loman. Clerk—L. T. Walters.

Several members of the W. O. W. and the Circle from neighboring towns were present.

St. Louis Judge Declares Personal Injury Verdict "Excessive."

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 7.—Ignoring the declaration of Judge Sale that $2,000 was "a grossly excessive verdict," in the case of Miss Eva F. Ridden, 18 years old, in her suit for damages against the United Railways, a jury in Judge Shield's court, where the case was taken on change of venue from Judge Sale, returned a verdict for that amount today.

Miss Ridden sued for $7,500 damages for injuries received when a Creve Coeur car left the track on the curve near Delmar garden, June 7, 1908. She said she received a severe nervous shock, which has caused her to lose much sleep and that what sleep she does get is accompanied by unpleasant dreams.

GIRLS PAY FINES IN PENNIES.

Strikers Amused at Clerk's Spending Half Hour Counting 2,500.

New York, Jan. 7.—Four striking shirtwaist makers, who were fined $25 collectively today, for their activities as pickets, paid their fines in pennies. It took the entire clerical force of the court nearly half an hour to count the 2,500 pennies. Meanwhile the girls looked on with amusement.

COTTON IN A $5 A BALE SLUMP

PUBLIC LOSES HEAVILY ON TUMBLE—BEARS PUT CLAWS TO BULLS.

TEXAS SCALES TO RESCUE

Bull Clique Enters Ring With Buying Orders and Brokers Bid Wildly in Effort to Stall the Tide.

New York, Jan. 6.—Cotton bears sunk their claws deeply into the hides of the bulls today, and for a time had them whipped to a standstill. Before the stampede of the bulls, whose campaign has been on the verge of crumbling was over, prices had fallen 42 points, or $2.10 a bale on top of yesterday's sensational slump of 60 points, or $3 a bale. The bull clique flooded the ring with buying orders and had some of its sharpest brokers bidding wildly for cotton, in an effort to stall the tide of liquidation from all sources. But until the bears were satisfied with the fruits of victory and began to cover, the bulls were out fought. The demand from both the shorts and the support given the market by the bull element then brought about a rather substantial recovery in values.

E. G. Scales entered the pit in the late afternoon and distributed buying orders which caused a rush of shorts to cover and prices went up sharply.

The May option dropped to 15.27c as against a high price yesterday of 16.24c, which put it about 120 points or $6.20 a bale under its high record of the season, made during the holiday season. It is in this position, and in July that the bulk of the bull holdings is concentrated and the bear raid was directed chiefly against these options.

Public Loses Trying to Win.

The public has undoubtedly lost quite heavily on the recent tumble in prices. There was a good outside demand between 15c and 16c during December, and when the market crossed the latter level toward the end of that month and predictions of higher price were made by the bulls, the public held on to its cotton. It was realized by the bulls, however, that the market was honeycombed with stop orders to sell around 16c, and they made a determined stand to prevent the market reacting to that level. The weight of cotton that was thrown upon the market was too heavy when the public tried to bag its paper profits with the result that prices have declined 100 points, or $5 a bale, in two days. This tremendous break in prices seems to have arisen solely from speculative causes as spot cotton in the South has shown no inclination to follow the decline in futures, and there has been no let up in the milling demand. It may develop, however that spinners will hold off now that there has been a material decline, but the bull position at present does not seem as weak as surface conditions might be thought to indicate.

DRESSMAKERS SAY GUILTY.

Participate in Smuggling Gowns in "Sleeper Trunks."

New York, Jan. 7.—Theresa Mahoney and Elizabeth R. Dinsmore, partners in a fashionable dressmaking establishment, pleaded guilty in the United States circuit court today to a charge of participation in the alleged conspiracy of smuggling costly gowns and dress goods to this country in "sleeper trunks." The maximum penalty is two years in prison and a fine of $10,000.

There are twenty-seven other dress makers under indictment and it is understood that the Mahoney and Dinsmore women have agreed to tell the government the inside story of the smuggling scheme in view of their sentences being suspended until July.

ROBERTSON RESIGNS TO RUN FOR GOVERNOR

DISTRICT JUDGE QUILTS BENCH TO MAKE RACE.

Does Not Believe in Holding One Office and Trying for Another.

Hoffman Succeeds.

Guthrie, Ok., Jan. 6.—Because he is a candidate for governor and did not believe in holding one office while seeking another, J. B. A. Robertson, Judge of the Lincoln-Pottawatomie county district court, tendered his resignation to Governor Haskell this afternoon, and it was accepted, Col.
Hoffman, chairman of the state board of affairs, whose resignation as such
was tendered to the governor Dec. 31
was named as Judge Robertson's successor, and it is understood that the vacancy on the State board of Affairs has been tendered to John J. Gerlach, banker of Woodward. Col. Hoffman severs his connection with the Board of Affairs Saturday, and will become District Judge Jan. 17, when Judge
Robertson's resignation is effective.

"I am candidate for governor," said Judge Robertson after leaving the state house, "and do not think a person is justified in holding one office while seeking another, particularly when the office he occupies necessitates the construction and application of the law. This is my only reason for leaving the bench.

"The situation should be cleared of possible influence so far as it can be done. Were I a candidate to succeed myself, I am frank enough to say that such a rule would hardly be applicable for the conditions would
be entirely different."

Gov. Haskell appointed Judge Robertson in the Lincoln-Pottawatomie county district to succeed District Judge Mahan of Shawnee, suspended by order of the court. His campaign for governor will open as soon as relieved of the present position.

NEW MOVE IN PHONE FIGHT

Bell Interests Will Have Depositions
Taken in St. Louis.

Cleveland, Jan. 7.—The next move
in the fight to prevent the Bell Telephone Company from absorbing the independent companies will be made in St. Louis.

Attorney H. B. McGraw and his associates, who have been acting as counsel for the minority stockholders
in the independent companies already sold, have been served with notice that depositions will be taken Thursday in St. Louis on behalf of the Bell interests.

ALL SUGAR PORTS SUSPECTED.

Inquiries Will Be Made to Discover
If Underweighing Occurred.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Following that which resulted in the discovery of underweighing of sugar at the port of New York inquiries are to be made at other ports where sugar is brought in.

Large quantities of sugar come into the United States at San Francisco and at Boston and smaller amount at various other ports. The effort to determine whether there had been underweighing at other places than New York will be begun as soon as arrangements can be made.

TOO FIERCE TO COMPARE WITH AMERICA.

Even Former Elections in England
Cannot Cope With the Present Struggle.

London, Jan. 6.—Hard-fought political struggles have been known in the United Kingdom before, but nothing equaling the present contest has been seen. About 1,000 speeches are delivered every twenty-four hours.
The sale of Robert Blatchford's pamphlet, "The German Menace," reached more than 1,000,000 copies. It sells at a penny (2 cents) a copy and the author gets 50 per cent of the proceeds. Fresh posters are going up daily all over the country and printers, lithographers and bill posters are working day and night.

The boardings look like Swiss sunset views. Personal posters, representing every candidate, are displayed wherever room can be found for them. It is estimated that colored bills emanating from London alone fill 2,000,000 square feet of wall space. They range in size from 2 by 3 to 10 by 15 feet.

Thousands of Leaflets.

One of the most notable free trade cartoons is that painted by T. B.
Kennington, which is reproduced by the Tony organization. It requires nine printings and is distributed in 2,000 centers of population. The cheapest copies can be produced at 27 shillings (6.75c a dozen). Conservatives and Liberals together are distributing 100,000,000 leaflets, exclusive of handbooks and "hints to speakers," which themselves constitute a formidable mass of literature.
The election four years ago cost
in printing, advertising, stationery, postage and telegrams £418,000 ($2-090,000). The approaching election will cost more than twice as much
not only because each party is printing more, but because the official returns do not cover the expenditures of organizations not directed by the candidates.

As a Summer Breeze.

In respect to personalities the campaign is the hottest ever experienced.
Among the words making up the lexicon of the contest are "liar," "slanderer," "vampire," "conspirator" and
"wrecker."
Sir Edward H. Carson caused a laugh in the country this morning by dubbing David Lloyd-George and Winston Churchill "the heavenly twins." At various places in Ireland the struggle is marked by stormy meetings, demolished windows and furniture, police charges and cracked heads.

An American national election,
which is supposed to be a cyclone, compared with this is as a soft summer breeze.

TO SEE COOK'S POLAR RECORDS.

Data Examined in Copenhagen Sent
to Washington Scientists.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook's Polar records are enroute to Washington to be examined by the National Geographic Society.
According to information sent to Prof. J. H. Gore, the documents were started from Copenhagen on December 21, which would get them to Washington about the end of this week.

Prof. Gore, Rear Admiral Pillsbury and Dr. W. M. Hayes of the Geological Survey will examine the papers and make a report early this month. Yesterday President Willis L. Moore of the society let it be known that he will not be a candidate for re-election. Some see in this one of the reflections of the Polar controversy. Prof. Moore has been president of the National Geographic Society five terms. In his letter declining a further election, he expressed the hope that a successor would be chosen before the Polar fight became an influence in the politics of the society.

New York, Jan. 7.—"With Samuel Gompers and John Mitchell not only participants but moving spirits in the movement, as well as officers in good standing in the Civic Federation, I cannot reconcile my own mind with what seems to me to be such an extremely inconsistent proposition."

John Kirby, Jr., of Dayton, O., president of the National Association of Manufacturers, in a letter to Seth Low, president of the National Civic Federation, thus frankly expresses his opinion that the manufacturers' association should not accept the invitation to participate in the coming Civic Federation conference at Washington.

A PLEASANT OCCASION

Editor Felter of the Roff Eagle
was host at a banquet given at Roff on New Years day in honor of his little city and his country correspondents and to which was invited the editorial fraternity of Pontotoc county.

The News editor on account of his
enforced absence from the county could not attend, was regretfully unable to attend.

The following is the report of the meeting by Editor Norrell of the Ada Democrat:

"The Roff Eagle has a large and enthusiastic corps of correspondents
and invited the entire staff to meet at Roff Saturday at a banquet given by the paper at the Nichols hotel.
The Democrat man was one of a few other friends who attended, and a most pleasant time we had. Besides the writer, Mrs. Shanafelt, Misses Ruby and Mary Kate Baker, Sam Mc-Clure and Robert Wimbish were there from Ada.

"Editor Felter is an excellent host,
and made his guests feel very much
at home. The dinner was simply fine and needless to say we did ample justice to it.

"In the afternoon Mr. Felter insisted that the writer become one of the three judges who should award the prize—a fine sewing machine—to the correspondent who made the best record during the past three months.
This was a rather knotty problem, but the decision was made in favor of Mrs. Kennon, who writes items from the ranches south of Roff.
However, C. L. Berger of Vanoss, was a very close second.

"We like this idea of a family reunion of the staff of a paper, and sometime in the near future hope to have the correspondents of the Democrat together in a similar gathering.

MURPHY OFFERS MANY BILLS.

One Would Prohibit Advertisements
of Quick-Divorce Lawyers.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Representative Murphy of Missouri covered a wide range of subjects in a bunch of bills which he dropped into the house hopper today. His headliner was a bill which would exclude from
the mails any paper or magazine which contained an advertisement of a get a quick divorce attorney. Any publisher who would offer for the mail a paper or magazine containing these advertisements would be fined not less than $300 nor more than $1,000 and sent to prison for from six months to two years.

Mr. Murphy also wants the franking privilege extended to vice presidents-elect, members of congress-elect, and delegates-elect. He also took a shot at papers which contain advertisements for fortune tellers, clairvoyants and spiritualists. In one of his bills it is provided that all publications which contain advertisements for this class should

NOT ALARMED AT MESSAGE.

W. C. Brown of New York Central
Talks of Taft Plans.

New York, Jan. 7.—"I know pretty well what the bill will provide, and I can say that it need not alarm
the investor nor embarrass any railroad that wants to do business in a straight, forward and orderly manner," was the assuring statement made today by W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central lines.

Mr. Brown was one of the six railroad presidents who conferred with President Taft yesterday on the railroad legislation which the president will recommend to congress next week in a message on interstate commerce.

Wall street and the railroad world
have been keenly interested in the coming railroad legislation, and President Brown's declaration allayed in great measure the fears that the message would prove embarrassing to the present control of the country's carriers.

SUICIDE INVENTION A SUCCESS.

Aged Missourian Blows Head Off by Dropping Weight on Trigger.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 7.—Jacob Mc-Cauley, a pioneer resident of Agency, Mo., committed suicide today by arranging a shotgun loaded with buckshot in such a manner that when a weight was dropped on the trigger
the charge blew off the top of his head. The suicide was 75 years old and a large property owner.

In Cannon's Home Town.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The next outbreak against Uncle Joe Cannon will come from Senator Gore of Oklahoma who is scheduled to deliver a speech at a Jackson banquet to be held Friday in the speaker's home town, Danville, Ill. The blind senator from Oklahoma is the only speaker on the program and he will be given a free reign.

Special from the County Judge's Office.

One of the best citizens of the Franks community was in the county judge's office today reporting a serious accident near Franks late yesterday afternoon. Twelve men on a wagon were accidentally thrown into a deep gulch and all injured—one perhaps fatally, and all the others so badly mangled that their identity had not been established when
the reporter left the community this morning for Ada.

It is said that the cause of the accident was very swift and reckless driving down hill, the front wheel of the large wagon hitting a huge boulder that lay near the roadside.
The wagon at once and before a single man could alight, went over a steep cliff crushing all beneath it.

A belated wood-hauler who chanced to be near by said that he noticed the wagon coming down the hill and only had time, by making haste, to clear the track before the wagon dashed by. He stated that all the occupants of the wagon, behind
the driver, were calling vociferously to the driver to go slower, that he was endangering their lives and positions, but the driver stated that the wagon was his and that he would drive as he pleased. The driver reminded them that they were his guests and were expected to silently keep their seats and not bother the driver. About this time the accident occurred and the wagon plunged twenty-five feet into the gulch.

LATER—News has just been received that all the men on the wagon will recover, except the driver and his physicians state that his chances for recovery are poor. It was also learned that the twelve passengers were all from Ada and that the vehicle was Otis B. Weaver's Water Wagon.

Steamed Chicken.

Clean and carefully wash in several cold waters a nice fat chicken. Allow all the water to drain out, rub half a teaspoonful of salt on the inside, then stuff with the following: One pint of fresh oysters without their juice, one pint of bread crumbs; butter, size of an egg, cut in small bits; half teaspoonful of black pepper and one leaf of sage crushed and sprinkled over the mixture. Mix all well together and moisten with half cup of the juice taken from the oysters. After stuffing the chicken fix same as for roasting and rub a teaspoonful of salt and
as much flour as will stick to it all over the outside, then drop it in a deep kettle in which has been browned and is still sizzling hot a half-cup of butter.
Turn the chicken often until well browned, cover tightly and set on back
of stove to simmer and steam for two hours in its own juice. To make the gravy chop fine and boil heart, liver
and gizzard in three-fourths of a quart of water and pour it into kettle after
the chicken has been taken up, thicken
and salt and pepper to taste.

Bread Sticks and Rolls.

One pint scalded milk, quarter cup butter, two tablespoonfuls sugar, one teaspoonful salt, one yeast cake in quarter cup water, white of one egg, flour to make batter. Add salt, sugar and butter to scalded milk. When lukewarm add yeast cake, white of egg well beaten and flour to make batter. Beat thoroughly and let rise an hour, then make up a stiff dough
and let it double its bulk in raising.
Make into sticks or rolls and let rise again. Start baking sticks in hot oven, and reduce heat that they may be crisp, as freshly baked crackers.

Potato Dumplings.

Grate six cold boiled white potatoes and mix with them three tablespoonfuls of flour and two level teaspoon-fuls of baking powder. Add one tablespoonful of melted butter, one beaten egg, a little salt, and a sprinkle of nutmeg or paprika. Form into balls, boil in salted water for about ten minutes, and serve with the following sauce: Take one small can of tomato soup, dilute with one-quarter the amount of water, season with salt, pepper, and a tablespoonful of grated cheese. Pour over dumplings and serve hot, hearty enough to eat without meat.

To Wash Blankets.

For two blankets take three tablespoonfuls borax, one and one-half bars soap, and three quarts water; dissolve over the fire. Pour into a tub of lukewarm water; leave blankets in this over night. Then rinse in waters of same temperature without any rubbing until the water is clear; hang up without wringing, being careful not to stretch the edges. When par-ly dry beat with rattan beater to raise the nap.

Rinsing.

When clothes are ready for rinsing do not take the clear water first and then blue water, but plunge the hot wrung clothes into a blue water direct and again into a final blue water,

TRIAL OF REV. VANSANT

HOLINESS PREACHER IN COURT FOR GETTING MONEY FALSLY

Mortgages Property to Allen School Board, but the Property Was Not There.

A trial which created quite a bit of interest was that of J. R. Vansant yesterday before Justice Brown. Vansant is a holiness preacher, but he got in court charged with securing money under false pretense. This was his preliminary trial and was continued until January 14 on account of the absence of one state witness. The complaint against Vansant was filed by the board of education of Allen. He contracted with the board last summer to build a school house with the agreement that the board hold back 15 per cent of his money until the work was completed. The contractor-minister needed some money and he told the members of the board about it. They refused to come through with it. The amount he wanted was $500 and he agreed to give them security on personal property for the amount. The board also agreed to this and when the time came to collect, all the property wasn't there. The board caused his arrest for getting money under false pretense. Vansant lives at Holdenville and was indicted during the last term of the district court for disposing of mortgaged property.

Will Lane who lives near Tyrola, was fined $25 and costs, amounting to $28.75, for carrying a pistol.

MAY BE MORE CONFESSIONS.
Grand Jury Resumes Inquiry Into Sugar Fraud Cases.

New York, Jan. 4.—Investigation of the sugar under-weighing frauds was continued today by the federal grand jury and it was intimated that further indictments, possibly of important persons, might be expected soon. Confession stories have been in the air recently and today's report had it that not only had important revelations been made by employees of the American Sugar Refining Company, five of whom were recently convicted of conspiracy to defraud, but that employees of other sugar importing firms had become convinced of the advisability of making a clean breast of it. The grand jury also is expected to take up shortly the investigation of the alleged paper combination which the federal authorities have been looking into, following the action which led to the dissolution of the Manila company.

RABIES IN A DENVER ZOO.
Four Animals Are Killed and Others May Be Dispatched.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 7.—Hydrophobia has broken out among the animals at City park zoo in Denver, and as a result four wolves already have been killed and many others are considered in danger, while a grizzly bear and two cinnamon bears are also threatened. A large timber wolf which attacked an attendant at the zoo a few days ago was shot and its body sent to the agricultural college for examination. Today the college reported that the wolf had had hydrophobia. In the meantime three other wolves which had shown signs of rabies were destroyed. It is feared still others will develop the disease, and that bears that were in the same inclosure with the timber wolves may be infected.

AN ICE JAM IN DENVER.
Cherry Creek, Diminutive Stream, Threatens Business Section.

Denver, Jan. 7.—Cherry creek, an ordinary diminutive stream that flows through a low section of Denver, is now filled with an ice jam that alarms business men and residents. For a quarter of a mile that stream is choked with ice that threatens to sweep all the bridges before it. The jam is now piled high against the Logan street bridge and the back water floods many houses. A force of 100 men is trying to break the blockade. The last destructive ice jam in Cherry creek was in 1878. Price of Ranch Stolen. POSTMASTER YOUNG SELECTED
TO DO WORK.

Examination Called for February 5 and Applicants Come From 17 Districts.

The following letter was received yesterday by Postmaster Young from the supervisor of census. The letter is dated McAlester and is self explanatory. I am advised by the department that you have been selected to conduct the examination for census enumerators of Pontotoc county on the 5th of February, 1910, they being advised to appear before you on that date. There will be applicants from 17 districts but I cannot say as to the number there will be from each district. Kindly advise me as early as possible how many you can accommodate at one time that we may advise the applicants at what hours to appear. Also advise where you will conduct the examination. If not room in the postoffice I would suggest that you secure the use of the school building, that being the plan we will adopt in this city. Thanking you for an early reply, I remain, yours very truly, S. A. Hawk, Supervisor of Census. At this time Postmaster Young does not know where the examination will be held, but will advise through this paper when a decision is made.

HON. HAL MULDROW.
Distinguished Grandmaster of Masonic Lodge and Prominent Democrat in City.

Hon. Hal Muldrow of Tishomingo, grandmaster of the Masonic Lodge of Oklahoma, was a very acceptable visitor at the office of the News Tuesday. While Mr. Muldrow is comparatively a young man, he ranks as a Masonic giant. This distinguished citizen spoke very highly of the personnel of the Ada Masonic lodge and of the Ada citizenship in general. Referring to the state political situation, in which great interest was expressed, he declared that naturally Johnston county was solidly behind the candidacy that personally he was going to exert his utmost efforts in behalf of its distinguished citizen, the Hon. Wm. H. Murray for governor and of his election.

Mrs. B. A. Mason Ill.

Mrs. B. A. Mason has been seriously ill for a week, but is now thought to be improved. The occurrence of Mrs. Mason's illness was probably the result of the strain and fatigue occasioned on account of her constant vigil at the side of her little daughter, Eloise, during her late excessive illness, but from which she has now fully recovered. It was on account of the illness in this family that required Miss Irene Mason to suspend her visit with relatives and among the society of Austin, Tex., and to return home. Her arrival was last Thursday.

Majority Are in Favor of Calling Session to Consider Tax and Fee Systems.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 6.—Gov. Haskell has received about fifty replies from members of the legislature, a vast majority of whom favor an immediate special session to consider the questions of taxation and limiting officers' fees. A number have called in person and given their views. Democratic members are practically unanimous for the session, while republicans heard from are equally divided. Senator Warren of Holdenville, Representatives Jacobs of Sequoyah, Sexton of Payne and Partridge of Cherokee, all republicans are opposed to the call. Senator Potter of Okmulgee and Representative Murphy of Oklahoma and Humphreys of Atoka, also republicans, favor it, while representative Heim of Mounds republican, announces that he will call a mass meeting and find out about it. Senator Clarence Davis of Sapulpa is opposed to a special session, which is the position also taken by Representative Maxey of Shawnee. Representatives Boyle of Haskell and Gilmer of Ardmore, were callers today, both favoring the session. Mr. Gilmer, who is a candidate for state auditor, and Col. Sneed of Lawton, member of the board of managers for the Oklahoma Confederate home to be erected at Ardmore, asked the governor to include with the recommendations an appropriation of $15,000 or $20,000 for maintenance of the home. It is being erected by private subscription, and will cost when completed $25,000.

HIS HEART IN THE WORK.

J. D. Rockefeller, Jr., Would Have "White Slave" Inquiry Thorough.

New York, Jan. 4.—"I am heart and soul in this investigation," said John D. Rockefeller, Jr., today as he entered the criminal court building to talk over the plans for the "white slave" investigation. Mr. Rockefeller was yesterday selected as foreman of the grand jury which is to make the investigation. "If these stories are true," continued Mr. Rockefeller, referring to the allegations of wholesale traffic in women which have been given wide publicity of late, "the truth about them should be definitely known; if they are false, they should be silenced forever." The investigation proper will be taken up by the grand jury on Monday next.

From a Man's Point of View

Having strolled into the room unconcernedly, the mere man paused in surprise. His eyebrows went up. Nobody paid the slightest attention to him.

At one table his wife was pounding doggedly, determinedly, with a little hammer, at something placed upon what looked like an old-fashioned bread-board. At a card table the young woman from three floors above hammered viciously with a little mallet at another bread-board. Between them, upright in a rocking chair, the young woman from the floor below wrinkled her fair brow as she tied mysterious knots in what looked like a heap of straw brought in from the barn loft.

"Excuse me," said the mere man, "but is this room No. 205, or isn't it? One gets so confused in a family hotel, you know."

"Don't be any more foolish than you can help!" interrupted his wife, between poundings. "We're just doing Christmas things!"

"Oh!" said the man. "It's brass work," explained his wife. "We are making electric light shades, the perforated kind. At least Mrs. Tryem and I are. Flossie, however, is doing raffia work."

"Well," said the man, strolling over to the basket weaver. "I'm glad that one of you picked out a lady-like style of fancy work. It sort of gives tone to the assembly and takes the edge off the remarkably crude and brutal heartiness with which my wife and Mrs. Tryem are conducting a perfectly good imitation of a foundry. How have you noisy people squared yourselves with the persons in the rooms above, below and on either side of you?"

"Why," explained Mrs. Tryem, "we don't know who's above us and the man on the left is out and the woman on the right is deaf, so it's all right." "I am so glad it's all right," said the man. "If they telephone up from the office, telling us to quit the racket or get out, I can just explain in a few brief, well-chosen phrases that they needn't worry because it's all right and that I was told so on excellent authority. What odd ideas women have! Taking a nice, shiny piece of brass and spoiling it by punching holes all over it so they can hang it up and obscure what little light an unobstructed electric bulb gives!"

"But they are dreadfully pretty," protested his wife.

"Of course, that's different," admitted the man. "Give us beauty, even if we don't have light. It reacts on your soul and character, you know. I heard that once in a lecture and I've always remembered it, because the lecturer had such weird whiskers. But, say—you're way behind time! I can think of several ways in which you could simplify that work. That stilet to thing pounded by hand gets in only thirty or forty punches a minute. Just take your sewing machine, put in an extra heavy needle without any thread and let 'er go. Why, you could finish a whole shade in an hour!"

Mrs. Tryem gazed at him with speculative, fascinated eyes, but his wife looked scornful. "The chief charm of these things," she said, "is that they are hand work. Machinery-made stuff is always horrid. What could we do with the extra time if we did save it? We'd just have to find more things to do and for all you know they might be worse than this!"

"Then by all means don't," interrupted the man, in haste. "Take just as long to do these as you choose. Do you leave the edges raw that way or do you put on ruffles of Irish crochet or what? Otherwise I don't see what you are ever going to do with all the yards of stuff you've been crocheting. Do you have stated times to pound your fingers or how do you arrange that? Nobody has smashed a finger since I came in, so I consider the entertainment a frost!"

"I can pound one of yours to jelly if you'll bring it over here," suggested Mrs. Tryem invitingly. "It might give you something to think about so you wouldn't continue to waste time as you've done the last ten minutes!"

"Anyhow," retorted the man, "it won't be a month before somebody will put on the market a machine that will punch the entire pattern on a dozen shades at one time with one punch and then you'll hate yourselves to think how you slaved! Flossie, here, little ladylike Flossie, is disturbing no one but herself with her work. If she chooses to tie harmless knots in pieces of straw, she just shall, bless her heart! You can burn up straw, you know, and get rid of it, but it's harder to dispose of brass. Of course, people can dig a hole in the back yard and bury it, but in cold weather the ground is so frozen—"

"See here!" cried his wife, with poised hammer, "would you very much mind going down and talking to some of the men in the smoking room for about an hour?"

"Indeed, no!" said the mere man, with injured spirit. "Not when you have turned my happy home into a boiler factory. Of course, against Flossie I have no grievance. She can string straws for hours if she wants to!"

"Aren't men perfectly horrid!" said Flossie as the mere man closed the door after him.

The Photograph of a Rival

The girl lay in a wicker chair, between heavy clumps of bramble upon an old-fashioned, undulating lawn.

The man lounged in another chair a few feet away from her. His outline was sulky. Dan, the retriever, rolled between them.

An oak tree of tremendous girth, which filled the background, stretched benedictory arms above their heads. "Bless you, my children," it seemed to say. Yet neither of them apparently had any use for blessings.

Lucy would have liked to throw things at the man—hard things that would have hurt him.

She would have liked to scream and run into the house. Both courses were denied her.

An overworked father with a sermon to write had bade her amuse his guest for an hour or two, and, generally speaking, she would have been well pleased to do it; but Lucy was mortal, and it is not given to mortals—not women mortals at any rate—to stand the sight of young men whom they consider captives of their bows and spears kissing surreptitiously the photographs of alien women which they have extracted for that purpose from the pockets of their Norfolk coats. Yet all this Lucy had seen just before lunch, as she passed the study window where Dick Fellowes sat waiting for the rector.

She had retired precipitately to the shrubbery to cry, and had emerged with what she flattered herself to be an exceedingly-usual-really-haven't-noticed-a-thing-you-know manner.

Of course, she overdid it. Dick asked her if she was angry with him, after 20 minutes of baffled effort to find her as usual.

"Angry? Good gracious, me—no! Angry?"

Now, what on earth had Lucy to be angry about? Mr. Fellowes, of all people, never made her angry. She never bothered to be angry with people, unless—oh, it didn't matter. No, certainly she was not angry.

She laughed, a laugh so unconvincing that Dan, the retriever, who had followed them out into the garden, barked at the sound of it. For 20 minutes the conversation was so strained that it could scarcely be called conversation at all. Then Dick Fellowes—the afternoon being hot—grew aggrieved and fell asleep, which was rude of him, and made Lucy more furious than ever.

She sat perfectly upright, clutching the arms of her chair, her eyes on the pocket of his Norfolk coat. Her whole soul was surged with one desire to see that photograph, to look for one tiny moment upon the features of that vulgar, fuzzy-haired girl whose outline she had faintly perceived through the study window.

She got up and took an angry turn round the bed of roses. Here and there she snipped off a dead rose as if it were the head of the girl whose photograph was good enough to be kissed—fuzziness and all.

When she returned to her chair, Dick still slept, snoring a little now, and at his feet, Dan, the retriever, worried something which he had unlawfully appropriated in the absence of his mistress.

It was a photograph, and from the wide Norfolk pocket had it been drawn gingerly with Dan's teeth.

Lucy's heart thudded suffocatingly with excitement. "Good dog," she whispered. "Put it down—good dog."

And Dan, accustomed to obedience, came and laid the photograph at her feet.

She stooped swiftly, and picked it up while the dog gamboled round her skirts.

Minx! The fuzzy-haired girl was asleep on a lawn with an open book on her lap, where she had obviously been snapped by the infatuated Dick.

"What a bold hussy—what a—Good gracious!" She clutched the photograph, looking closer. Why the creature's dress was familiar—and her face—oh, her face!

Quite suddenly and unexpectedly Lucy's heart beat a new tune.

"Dick couldn't have been so absurd—and all that time ago, too. Oh, of all things, what a little fool she's been! Poor, dear old Dick!" And so on, ad libitum.

A mere scribe finds it not within his province to describe Lucy's volitive face. She was a new woman, her dimples came and went, her business kept her company.

Then he had cared for her all this long time, much longer than she'd fancied, and he was waiting to speak till he'd got promotion. She tiptoed on velvet feet to his side and dropped the photograph gently back into its gaping home.

Then she touched Dick on the shoulder. "Dick," she cried—"Dick, you're awfully bad company to-day—do wake up! Here's tea. I want you to see Dan begging for Devonshire cream on Bath olives—he loves it, but he only gets it for a treat when he's been—er—specially good."

And Dick realizing dimly and stupidly, as a man will, that magic had been at work since he slept, sensibly made no reference to the past, but drew his chair near to Lucy's, and beamed all over.

SHE SHOWS GOULD AS ARTIST.

Bessie DeVoe, the Dancer, Has Drawings Made of Rich Man.

New York, Jan. 4.—That Frank Gould drew pretty little sketches supposed to represent himself and Miss Bessie DeVoe in loving attitudes, was one of the assertions made by the young woman, who is a stage dancer, in her $250,000 breach of promise suit against the multi-millionaire.

When the exhibits were produced in the case, the young woman with glee brought to light a series of Gould family photographs which she said her wealthy suitor had taken from the family album. With them was one sketch, copied by Gould, from a drawing by a widely-known delineator of affairs of the heart, and which it was said was intended to represent Gould and Miss DeVoe in an embrace.

This was not the chief in the pile of exhibits, which included burning love letters purporting to have been written by the rich man to the stage girl.

And if the love letters and pictures and the sketch have no other effect, Miss DeVoe gives them part of the credit for obtaining for her a stage engagement at $2,000 a week. Two thousand a week is some heart balm if one stops to think. And the decision in the breach promise suit is still pending.

Have your horses, mules and cows insured, T. W. Chadwick, agent. tf

ZELAYA'S LIFE IS IN DANGER

MEXICAN OFFICIALS WARN EX-PRESIDENT OF PLOT AGAINST HIM.

City of Mexico Jan 7.—Jose Santos Zelaya was warned by officials here that the police authorities are in receipt of secret information that two Salvadoreans and an American are in the City of Mexico and are only awaiting a favorable opportunity to take his life.

Officials of the police department have advised Zelaya to arm himself and prepare for any emergency that may arise in which his life might be placed in jeopardy. They have also detailed two of the best men in the secret service to accompany him whenever he leaves his rooms and to keep a close watch over every one entering his hotel.

It is known that Zelaya has exhibited some little nervousness since coming to the City of Mexico and that he is never without a pistol. It is reported that he carried a small Derringer in one of the side pockets of his coat.

Killed Many Persons.

During the sixteen years the Zelaya ruled over Nicaragua many people were killed from that country, and hence he has many bitter enemies some of whom are gloating over his recent misfortunes. Zelaya and his friends know that he is heartily hated by those who left Nicaragua when he was in power and they are alert every minute in the day to observe any untoward action that may be taken by any one.

Friends of Zelaya said today that the Nicaraguan President of Nicaragua has decided to buy a hacienda in Mexico and live out in the rural districts. If this is true he is not evidently planning to take any early trip to Europe.

Diaz Congratulates Madrid.

City of Mexico Jan 6.—President Diaz today sent a congratulatory telegram to President Madrid of Nicaragua. It was in reply to one received from Madrid, stating that he was now the head of the government formerly presided over by Jose Santos Zelaya.

The report that these communications had just passed between the two executives was confirmed at the foreign office late this afternoon.

Francisco Castro, Nicaraguan minister to Mexico has asked his government for a leave of absence and it is believed that it is equivalent to a resignation. Minister Castro hopes to leave soon for his home in Nicaragua and it is thought here that he will not return. He is a close friend of Zelaya and has been much in the company of the former since he arrived in this capital.

TRUST FIGHT GOES TO TAFT

STEEL CORPORATION EXISTS DESPITE ANTI-TRUST LAW LABOR SAYS.

Charges That the Combine Boycotts American Labor—Advertises for Foreign Laborers—Investigation Promised.

Washington, Jan 6.—The American Federation of Labor, through a committee headed by Samuel Gompers, James O'Connell and other union leaders, today carried its fight against the United States Steel Corporation to President Taft. The committee presented a formal paper in which it set forth fourteen different charges of illegality against the corporation and asked for an immediate investigation of the so-called trust.

The president promised to take the matter up with the secretary of commerce and labor and with labor commissioner Neill.

The first charge against the steel corporation is that it is an illegal combination existing in defiance of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The labor leaders claim that if the government officials will as they have done in the cases of the Standard Oil Company and the tobacco trust, present to a competent court the facts concerning the steel corporation conviction would logically follow.

Say Law Can Reach It.

It is not to be doubted, says the letter to the president, that the law and courts can reach this monopoly even if its annual revenue is counted in the hundreds of millions of dollars. Its power of wealth must not be permitted to paralyze the arm of the law.

"Founded Upon Tariff."

It is charged that this so-called great American industry founded upon the tariff enacted for the protection of American labor from the competition of the pauper labor of Europe, is speedily and effectually excluding American labor, skilled and unskilled from its employment; and has again and again advertised that Syrians, Poles and Roumanians are preferred as its employees.

It is charged that the steel corporation not only degrades labor by low wages and a twelve-hour workday but denies a day of rest by enforcing work seven days in the week that it tyrannically prevents the organization of its workers to elevate the standard of living and suppresses and prevents free speech and public meetings, so that it boycotts American labor and has enforced decrees of banishment from communities where it dominates.

In conclusion, it is charged that the steel corporation is organized illegally, dominant and defiant with no respect for legal right and human right and with utter indifference as to human capacity for endurance and for deaths and injury of its tollers, that its continued methods are a menace not only to labor, but to the business men outside of its baneful power and influence.

Curtiss Says He Will Fly.

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan 7.—Declaring that he knew nothing of any injunction issued against him on behalf of the Wright Brothers, Glenn H. Curtiss, who arrived in Los Angeles from the East today asserted that he would enter as many of the events at the aviation meet next week as possible.

Many Arrests at El Paso.

El Paso, Tex., Jan 7.—Police Chief Jenkins' annual report might be construed to show that one-tenth of El Paso's population was arrested last year. His figures submitted today, show that the total arrests for the year were 3,322. The city's population is a little more than 50,000.

CITY HALL SCENE OF ENJOYABLE OCCASION.

The Woodmen of the World and Woodmen Circle installed officers at the city hall last night and the installation was one of the most enjoyable and beneficial occasions of the kind ever transpiring in the city. The program as rendered showed much time and care to have been devoted to it and included Woodmen of state and national reputations.

On entering the auditorium a reception was given after which the members of the two lodges registered at the table where a delicious brand of punch was served. Order was then called and the program given. The address of welcome was made by Hon. T. D. McKeown and was responded to by Mrs. M. J. Meadows of Oklahoma City who is the state manager of the Circle.

The drill by sixteen girls was very commendable and the reading by Miss Lena West and the solo by Miss Ruby Eaton deserve special mention. Music by the orchestra was excellent. The Circle ladies took part in a splendid drill.

Billy Hughes of St. Louis, National W. O. W. lecturer delivered a lecture on "Fraternalism" which, it is needless to say was well received.

Mr. Hughes has visited many camps and said that he had seen more fraternity in the local camp than in any other which he has visited.

R. L. Forgan, state manager of the W. O. W. spoke on "Statistics" of which he gave many on Woodcraft in this state among which was that there were nearly 26,000 members of the Woodmen of the World in Oklahoma.

Drill Captain—Mrs. Beulah Neatherton. The officers installed by the W. O. W. follow: Consul Commander—D. L. Middleton; Advisor Lieutenant—Jos. Deckert; Banker—C. T. Loman; Clerk—L. T. Walters.

St. Louis Judge Declares Personal Injury Verdict "Excessive."

St. Louis, Mo., Jan 7.—Ignoring the declaration of Judge Sale that $2,000 was "a grossly excessive verdict," in the case of Miss Eva F. Riden, 18 years old, in her suit for damages against the United Railways, a jury in Judge Shields' court, where the case was taken on change of venue from Judge Sale, returned a verdict for that amount today.

Miss Riden sued for $7,500 damages for injuries received when a Creve Coeur car left the track on the curve near Delmar garden, June 7, 1908. She said she received a severe nervous shock, which has caused her to lose much sleep and that what sleep she does get is accompanied by unpleasant dreams.

GIRLS PAY FINES IN PENNIES.

Strikers Amused at Clerk's Spending Half Hour Counting 2,500.

New York, Jan 7.—Four striking shirtwaist makers, who were fined $25 collectively today, for their activities as pickets, paid their fines in pennies. It took the entire clerical force of the court nearly half an hour to count the 2,500 pennies. Meanwhile the girls looked on with amusement.

New York, Jan 6.—Cotton bears sank their claws deeply into the hides of the bulls today and for a time had them whipped to a standstill. Before the stampede of the bulls, whose campaign has been on the verge of crumbling was over prices had fallen 42 points, or $2.10 a bale on top of yesterday's sensational slump of 60 points or $3 a bale. The bull clique flooded the ring with buying orders and had some of its sharpest brokers bidding wildly for cotton in an effort to stall the tide of liquidation from all sources. But until the bears were satisfied with the fruits of victory and began to cover the bulls were out fought. The demand from both the shorts and the support given the market by the bull element then brought about a rather substantial recovery in values.

E. G. Scales entered the pit in the late afternoon and distributed buying orders which caused a rush of shorts to cover and prices went up sharply.

The May option dropped to 15.27c against a high price yesterday of 16.24c which put it about 120 points or $6.20 a bale under its high record of the season, made during the holiday season. It is in this position, and in July that the bulk of the bull holdings is concentrated and the bear raid was directed chiefly against these options.

Public Loses Trying to Win.

The public has undoubtedly lost quite heavily on the recent tumble in prices. There was a good outside demand between 15c and 16c during December, and when the market crossed the latter level toward the end of that month and predictions of higher prices were made by the bulls the public held on to its cotton. It was realized by the bulls however that the market was honeycombed with stop orders to sell around 16c and they made a determined stand to prevent the market reacting to that level. The weight of cotton that was thrown upon the market was too heavy when the public tried to bag its paper profits with the result that prices have declined 100 points, or $5 a bale, in two days. This tremendous break in prices seems to have arisen solely from speculative causes as spot cotton in the South has shown no inclination to follow the decline in futures, and there has been no let up in the mill and demand it may develop, however that spinners will hold off now that there has been a material decline, but the bull position at present does not seem as weak as surface conditions might be thought to indicate.

New York, Jan 7.—Theresa Mahoney and Elizabeth R. Dinsmore, partners in a fashionable dressmaking establishment, pleaded guilty in the United States circuit court today to a charge of participation in the alleged conspiracy of smuggling costly gowns and dress goods to this country in "sleeper trunks." The maximum penalty is two years in prison and a fine of $10,000.

There are twenty-seven other dress makers under indictment and it is understood that the Mahoney and Dinsmore women have agreed to tell the government the inside story of the smuggling scheme in view of their sentences being suspended until July.

DISTRICT JUDGE QUITS BENCH TO MAKE RACE.

Does Not Believe in Holding One Office and Trying for Another.

Hoffman Succeeds.

Guthrie Ok, Jan 6—Because he is
a candidate for governor and did not believe in holding one office while
Judge of the Lincoln-Pottawatomie
county district court, tendered his resignation to Governor Haskell this afternoon, and it was accepted, Col.
Hoffman, chairman of the state board
was tendered to the governor Dec 31
was named as Judge Robertson's successor, and it is understood that the
vacancy on the State board of Affairs
banker of Woodward. Col. Hoffman
severs his connection with the Board of Affairs Saturday, and will become District Judge Jan 17, when Judge
Robertson's resignation is effective.

Judge Robertson after leaving the state house, "and do not think a per-
while seeking another, particularly
when the office he occupies necessitates the construction and applica-
reason for leaving the bench.

The situation should be cleared
of possible influence so far as it can be done. Were I a candidate to suc-
be applicable for the conditions would
be entirely different."

Gov. Haskell appointed Judge Robertson in the Lincoln-Pottawatomie
Judge Mahen of Shawnee, suspended by order of the court. His campaign
for governor will open as soon as

Bell Interests Will Have Depositions
Taken in St. Louis.

Cleveland, Jan 7—The next move
in the fight to prevent the Bell Telephone Company from absorbing the independent companies will be made
in St. Louis.

Attorney H. B. McGraw and his associates, who have been acting as
counsel for the minority stockholders
in the independent companies already sold, have been served with
Thursday in St. Louis on behalf of the Bell interests.

Inquiries Will Be Made to Discover

which resulted in the discovery of underweighing of sugar at the port
brought in.

Large quantities of sugar come in-
to the United States at San Francis-
underweighing at other places than

AMERICA.

Even Former Elections in England
Struggle.

London, Jan 6—Hard-fought political struggles have been known in the United Kingdom before, but nothing
equaling the present contest has
delivered every twenty-four hours.
The sale of Robert Blatchford's pamphlet, "The German Menace," reached more than 1,000,000 copies. It sells at a penny (2 cents) a copy and the author gets 50 per cent of the proceeds. Fresh posters are going up
ers, lithographers and bill posters are working day and night.

The boardings look like Swiss sun-
set views. Personal posters, representing every candidate, are displayed wherever room can be found for
bills emanating from London alone
space. They range in size from 2 by 3 to 10 by 15 feet.

Thousands of Leaflets.
One of the most notable free trade
cartoons is that painted by T. B.
Kennington which is reproduced by the Tory organization. It requires nine printings and is distributed in 2,000 centers of population. The cheap copies can be produced at 27 shillings (675c a dozen). Conservatives and Liberals together are distributing 100,000,000 leaflets, exclusive of handbooks and hints to speakers, which themselves constitute a formidable mass of literature.

in printing, advertising stationery,
postage and telegrams $418,000 ($2-090,000). The approaching election will cost more than twice as much
not only because each party is printing more but because the official returns do not cover the expenditure of organizations not directed by the candidate's.

As a Summer Breeze.
In respect to personalities the campaign is the hottest ever experienced.
Among the words making up the lex-
icon of the contest are liar "slanderer" vampire, conspirator and
"wrecker."

Sir Edward H. Carson caused a
dubbing David Lloyd-George and Winston Churchill the heavenly
twins. At various places in Ireland
the struggle is marked by stormy
meetings demolished windows and
heads.

An American national election
which is supposed to be a cyclone,
compared with this is as a soft summer breeze.

Washington, Jan 7—Dr. Frederick A. Cook's Polar records are enroute to Washington to be examined
by the National Geographic Society.
According to information sent to Prof. J. M. Gore, the documents were started from Copenhagen on December 21, which would get them to Washington about the end of this
week.

Prof. Gore, Rear Admiral Pills-
bury and Dr. W. M. Hayes of the Geological Survey will examine the
papers and make a report early this month. Yesterday President Willis
L. Moore of the society let it be known that he will not be a candidate for re-election. Some see in this
one of the reflections of the Polar controversy. Prof. Moore has been president of the National Geographic Society five terms. In his letter declining a further election, he expressed the hope that a successor
would be chosen before the Polar
fight became an influence in the politics of the society.

New York, Jan 7—"With Samuel
Gompers and John Mitchell not only
participants but moving spirits in the movement, as well as officers in good standing in the Civic Federation, I cannot reconcile my own mind with
tremely inconsistent proposition."

John Kirby, Jr., of Dayton, O.,
president of the National Association
of Manufacturers, in a letter to Seth Low, president of the National Civic Federation, thus frankly expresses his opinion that the manufacturers' association should not accept the invitation to participate in the coming Civic Federation conference at Washington.

A PLEASANT OCCASION

Editor Felter of the Roff Eagle
was host at a banquet given at Roff
on New Years day in honor of his little city and his country correspondents and to which was invited the editorial fraternity of Pontotoc
county.

enforced absence from the county
could not attend, was regretfully,
unable to attend.

Democrat.

"The Roff Eagle has a large and enthusiastic corps of correspondents
and invited the entire staff to meet
at Roff Saturday at a banquet given by the paper at the Nichols hotel.
The Democrat man was one of a few other friends who attended, and
Clure and Robert Wimbush were
there from Ada.

Editor Felter is an excellent host,
and made his guests feel very much
at home. The dinner was simply fine
and needless to say we did ample
justice to it.

In the afternoon Mr. Felter insisted that the writer become one of the
prize—a fine sewing machine—to the
correspondent who made the best
record during the past three months.
This was a rather knotty problem,
but the decision was made in favor
of Mrs. Kennon, who writes stems from the ranches south of Roff.
However, C. L. Berger of Vanoss was
a very close second.

We like this idea of a family reunion of the staff of a paper, and
sometime in the near future hope
to have the correspondents of the Democrat together in a similar gathering.

MURPHY OFFERS MANY BILLS.

of Quick-Divorce Lawyers.

Washington, Jan 7—Representative Murphy of Missouri covered a wide range of subjects in a bunch
of bills which he dropped into the house hopper today. His headlines were: "Bill which would exclude from the mails any paper or magazine
which contained an advertisement of
a get a quick divorce attorney. Any publisher who would offer for the
mail a paper or magazine containing these advertisements would be fined not less than $300 nor more than $1,000 and sent to prison for from
six months to two years.

Mr. Murphy also wants he franking privilege extended to vice presidents-elect members of congress-elect, and delegates-elect. He also took a shot at papers which contain
advertisements for fortune tellers,
one of his bills it is provided that
all publications which contain advertisements for this class should

W. C. Brown of New York Central
Talks of Taft Plans.

New York, Jan 7—"I know pretty
well what the bill will provide, and I can say that it need not alarm
the investor nor embarrass any rail-
straight, forward and orderly manner," was the assuring statement
made today by W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central lines.

Mr. Brown was one of the six railroad presidents who conferred with President Taft yesterday on the railroad legislation which the president will recommend to congress next week in a message on interstate commerce.

Wall street and the railroad world
have been keenly interested in the coming railroad legislation, and President Brown's declaration allayed in
message would prove embarrassing
to the present control of the country's carriers.

Aged Missourian Blows Head Off by Dropping Weight on Trigger.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan 7—Jacob Mc-
Cauley, a pioneer resident of Agency,
Mo., committed suicide today by arranging a shotgun loaded with buck-
shot in such a manner that when a weight was dropped on the trigger
the charge blew off the top of his
and a large property owner.

In Cannon's Home Town.

break against Uncle Joe Cannon
will come from Senator Gore of Oklahoma who is scheduled to deliver a
held Friday in the speaker's home
town, Danville, Ill. The blind senator from Oklahoma is the only speaker on the program and he will be given a free reign.

Office.

One of the best citizens of the Franks community was in the county judge's office today reporting a serious accident near Franks late
a wagon were accidentally thrown
into a deep gulch and all injured—
one perhaps fatally, and all the others so badly mangled that their iden-
the reporter left the community this morning for Ada.

It is said that the cause of the accident was very swift and reckless driving down hill, the front wheel of
the large wagon hitting a huge
boulder that lay near the roadside.
The wagon at once and before a single man could alight, went over a steep cliff crushing all beneath it.

A belated wood-hauler who chanced to be near by said that he noticed the wagon coming down the hill and only had time, by making haste, to clear the track before the
the occupants of the wagon, behind
the driver, were calling vociferously
to the driver to go slower, that he was endangering their lives and possibly but he driver stated that the wagon was his and that he would drive as he pleased. The driver reminded them that they were his guests and were expected to silently keep their seats and not bother
the driver. About this time the accident occurred and the wagon plunged twenty-five feet into the gulch.

LATER—News has just been received that all the men on the wagon will recover except the driver and his physicans state that his chances for recovery are poor. It was also learned that the twelve passengers were all from Ada and that
Water Wagon.

Steamed Chicken.

all the water to drain out, rub half a teaspoonful of salt on the inside, then
stuff with the following: One pint of
fresh oysters without their juice, one pint of bread crumbs, butter, size of
an egg, cut in small bits, half tea-
mixture. Mix all well together and
moisten with half cup of the juice
taken from the oysters. After stuffing the chicken fix same as for roasting and rub a teaspoonful of salt and
over the outside then drop it in a deep kettle in which has been browned and is still sizzling hot a half cup of butter.
Turn the chicken often until well
browned, cover tightly and set on back
of stove to simmer and steam for two hours in its own juice. To make the gravy chop fine and boil chicken, liver and gizzard in three fourths of a quart
of water and pour it into kettle after
the chicken has been taken up, thicken

One pint scalded milk, quarter cup
butter, two tablespoonfuls sugar, one
teaspoonful salt, one yeast cake in
quarter cup water, white of one egg,
flour to make batter. Add salt, sugar
and butter to scalded milk. When
lukewarm add yeast cake, white of
egg well beaten and flour to make
an hour, then make up a stiff dough
and let it double its bulk in raising.
Make into sticks or rolls and let rise
again. Start baking sticks in hot oven, and reduce heat that they may be crisp, as freshly baked crackers.

Potato Dumplings.

Grate six cold boiled white potatoes
and mix with them three tablespoonfuls of flour and two level tablespoonfuls of baking powder. Add one tablespoonful of melted butter, one beaten
egg, a little salt, and a sprinkle of nutmeg or paprika. Form into balls, boil in salted water for about ten
sauce: Take one small can of tomato soup, dilute with one-quarter the amount of water, season with salt,
pepper, and a tablespoonful of grated
serve hot, hearty enough to eat without meat.

To Wash Blankets.

For two blankets take three table-
spoonfuls borax, one and one-half bars
soap, and three quarts water; dissolve
warm water, leave blankets in this
same temperature without any rubbing until the water is clear, hang
up without wringing, being careful
not to stretch the edges. When partly dry beat with rattan beater to raise the nap.

Rinsing.

When clothes are ready for rinsing
do not take the clear water first and then blue water, but plunge the hot wring clothes into a blue water direct
and again into a final blue water, thereby causing them to undergo a bleaching process which adds much to their whiteness.

Egg Help.

Add a pinch of cream of tartar to
the whites of eggs while whipping.
This will prevent them from falling
after they are whipped.

TRIAL OF REV. VANSANT CONTINUED UNTIL JAN. 14

HOLINESS PREACHER IN COURT FOR GETTING MONEY FAISLY

Vansant is a holiness preacher, but he got in court charged with securing money under false pretense. This was his preliminary trial and was continued until January 14 on account of the absence of one state witness.

The complaint against Vansant was filed by the board of education of Allen. He contracted with the board last summer to build a school house with the agreement that the board hold back 15 per cent of his money until the work was completed. The contractor-minister needed some money and he told the members of the board about it. They refused to come through with it. The amount he wanted was $500 and he agreed to give them security on personal property for the amount.

The board also agreed to this and when the time came to collect, all the property wasn't there. The board caused his arrest for getting money under false pretense.

Vansant lives at Holdenville and was indicted during the last term of the district court for disposing of mortgaged property.

Will Lane who lives near Tyrola, was fined $25 and costs, amounting to $23.75, for carrying a pistol.

Grand Jury Resumes Inquiry Into Sugar Fraud Cases.

New York, Jan. 4.—Investigation of the sugar under-weighting frauds was continued today by the federal grand jury and it was intimated that further indications, possibly of important persons, might be expected soon.

Confession stories have been in the air recently and today's report had it that not only had important revelations been made by employees of the American Sugar Refining Company, five of whom were recently convicted of conspiracy to defraud, but that employees of other sugar importing firms had become convinced of the advisability of making a clean breast of it.

The grand jury also is expected to take up shortly the investigation of the alleged paper combination which the federal authorities have been looking into, following the action which led to the dissolution of the Manila company.

RABIES IN A DENVER ZOO.

Four Animals Are Killed and Others May Be Dispatched.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 7.—Hydrophobia has broken out among the animals at City park zoo in Denver, and as a result four wolves already have been killed and many others are considered in danger, while a grizzly bear and two cinnamon bears are also threatened.

A large timber wolf which attacked an attendant at the zoo a few days ago was shot and its body sent to the agricultural college for examination. Today the college reported that the wolf had had hydrophobia. In the meantime three other wolves which had shown signs of rabies were destroyed.

It is feared still others will develop the disease, and that bears that were in the same enclosure with the timber wolves may be infected.

Cherry Creek, Diminutive Stream, Threatens Business Section.

Denver, Jan. 7.—Cherry creek, an ordinary diminutive stream that flows through a low section of Denver, is now filled with an ice jam that alarms business men and residents. For a quarter of a mile that stream is choked with ice that threatens to sweep all the bridges before it.

The jam is now piled high against the Logan street bridge and the back water floods many houses. A force of 100 men is trying to break the blockade. The last destructive ice jam in Cherry creek was in 1878.

Price of Ranch Stolen.

POSTMASTER YOUNG SELECTED TO DO WORK

The following letter was received yesterday by Postmaster Young from the supervisor of census. The letter is dated McAlester and is self explanatory.

I am advised by the department that you have been selected to conduct the examination for census enumerators of Pontotoc county on the 5th of February, 1910, they being advised to appear before you on that date. There will be applicants from 17 districts but I cannot say as to the number there will be from each district. Kindly advise me as early as possible how many you can accommodate at one time that we may advise the applicants at what hours to appear. Also advise where you will conduct the examination. If not room in the postoffice I would suggest that you secure the use of the school building, that being the plan we will adopt in this city. Thanking you for an early reply, I remain, yours very truly,

S. A. Hawk, Supervisor of Census.

At this time Postmaster Young does not know where the examination will be held, but will advise through this paper when a decision is made.

HON. HAL MULBROW.

Distinguished Grandmaster of Masonic Lodge and Prominent Democrat in City.

Hon. Hal Mulbrow of Tishomingo, grandmaster of the Masonic Lodge of Oklahoma, was a very acceptable visitor at the office of the News Tuesday. While Mr. Mulbrow is comparatively a young man, he ranks as a Masonic giant.

This distinguished citizen spoke very highly of the personnel of the Ada Masonic lodge and of the Ada citizenship in general. Referring to the state political situation, in which great interest was expressed, he declared that naturally Johnston county was solidly behind the candidacy that personally he was going to exert his utmost efforts in behalf of its distinguished citizen, the Hon. Wm. H. Murray for governor and of his election.

Mrs. B. A. Mason Ill.

Mrs. B. A. Mason has been seriously ill for a week, but is now thought to be improved. The occurrence of Mrs. Mason's illness was probably the result of the strain and fatigue occasioned on account of her constant vigil at the side of her little daughter, Eloise, during her late excessive illness, but from which she has now fully recovered. It was on account of the illness in this family that required Miss Irene Mason to suspend her visit with relatives and among the society of Austin, Tex., and to return home. Her arrival was last Thursday.

GOVERNOR HEARS FROM ABOUT 50 ON SESSION CALL.

Majority Are in Favor of Calling Session to Consider Tax and Fee Systems.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 6.—Gov. Haskell has received about fifty replies from members of the legislature, a vast majority of whom favor an immediate special session to consider the questions of taxation and limiting officers' fees. A number have called in person and given their views. Democratic members are practically unanimous for the session, while republicans heard from are equally divided.

Senator Warren of Holdenville, Representatives Jacobs of Sequoyah, Sexton of Payne and Partridge of Cherokee, all republicans are opposed to the call. Senator Potter of Okmulgee and Representative Murphy of Oklahoma and Humphreys of Atoka, also republicans, favor it, while representative Helm of Mounds republican, announces that he will call a mass meeting and find out about it.

Senator Clarence Davis of Sapulpa is opposed to a special session, which is the position also taken by Representative Magee of Shawnee.

Representative Boyle of Haskell and Gilmer of Ardmore, were callers today, both favoring the session. Mr. Gilmer, who is a candidate for state auditor, and Col. Sneed of Lawton, member of the board of managers for the Oklahoma Confederate home to be erected at Ardmore, asked the governor to include with the recommendations an appropriation of $15,000 or $20,000 for maintenance of the home. It is being erected by private subscription, and will cost when completed $25,000.

HIS HEART IN THE WORK.

J. D. Rockefeller, Jr., Would Have "White Slave" Inquiry Thorough.

New York, Jan. 4.—"I am heart and soul in this investigation," said John D. Rockefeller, Jr., today as he entered the criminal court building to talk over the plans for the "white slave" investigation.

Mr. Rockefeller was yesterday selected as foreman of the grand jury which is to make the investigation.

"If these stories are true," continued Mr. Rockefeller, referring to the allegations of wholesale traffic in women which have been given wide publicity of late, "the truth about them should be definitely known; if they are false, they should be silenced forever."

The investigation proper will be taken up by the grand jury on Monday next.

Expert Farmers in Demand.

Washington, Jan. 7.—"Expert farmers wanted, salary $1,200 per annum."

The Indian service is making this offer to agricultural students who are sufficiently equipped to train the braves on Indian reservations in raising farm products. The appointments will be restricted to graduates of agricultural colleges.

The successful applicants will be designated by Indian Commissioner Valentine to manage model demonstration farms on reservations in arid and semi-arid regions of the west.

IS ADVISED TO ARM HIMSELF

Mexican Police Give Tip That an American and Two Salvadoreans are in Capital Ready to Take Life.

City of Mexico, Jan. 7.—Jose Santos Zelaya was warned by officials here that the police authorities are in receipt of secret information that two Salvadoreans and an American are in the City of Mexico and are only awaiting a favorable opportunity to take his life.

Officials of the police department have advised Zelaya to arm himself and prepare for any emergency that may arise in which his life might be placed in jeopardy. They have also detailed two of the best men in the secret service to accompany him whenever he leaves his rooms and to keep a close watch over every one entering his hotel.

It is known that Zelaya has exhibited some little nervousness since coming to the City of Mexico and that he is never without a pistol. It is reported that he carried a small derringer in one of the side pockets of his coat.

Killed Many Persons.
During the sixteen years that Zelaya ruled over Nicaragua many people were killed from that country, and hence he has many bitter enemies some of whom are gloating over his recent misfortune. Zelaya and his friends know that he is heartily hated by those who left Nicaragua when he was in power and they are alert every minute in the day to observe any untoward action that may be taken by any one.

Friends of Zelaya said today that the United States President of Nicaragua has decided to buy a hacienda in Mexico and live out in the rural districts. If this is true he is not evidently planning to take any early trip to Europe.

Diaz Congratulates Madrid.
City of Mexico, Jan. 6.—President Diaz today sent a congratulatory telegram to President Madrid of Nicaragua. It was in reply to one received from Madrid, stating that he was now the head of the government formerly presided over by Jose Santos Zelaya.

The report that these communications had just passed between the two executives was confirmed at the foreign office late this afternoon.

Francisco Castro, Nicaraguan minister to Mexico, has asked his government for a leave of absence and it is believed that it is equivalent to a resignation. Minister Castro hopes to leave soon for his home in Nicaragua and it is thought here that he will not return. He is a close friend of Zelaya and has been much in the company of the former since he arrived in this capital.

TRUST FIGHT GOES TO TAFT

STEEL CORPORATION EXISTS DESPITE ANTI-TRUST LAW LABOR SAYS.

Charges That the Combine Boycotts American Labor—Advertises for Foreign Laborers—Investigation Promised.

Washington, Jan. 6.—The American Federation of Labor, through a committee headed by Samuel Gompers, James O'Connell and other union leaders, today carried its fight against the United States Steel Corporation to President Taft. The committee presented a formal paper in which it set forth fourteen different charges of illegality against the corporation and asked for an immediate investigation of the so-called trust.

The president promised to take the matter up with the secretary of commerce and labor and with labor commissioner Neill.

The first charge against the steel corporation is that it is an illegal combination existing in defiance of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The labor leaders claim that if he gave moment officials will as they have done in the cases of the Standard Oil Company and the tobacco trust, present to a competent court the facts concerning the steel corporation conviction would logically follow.

Say Law Can Reach It.
It is not to be doubted, says the letter to the president, that the law and courts can reach this monopoly even if its annual revenue is counted in the hundreds of millions of dollars. Its power of wealth must not be permitted to paralyze the arm of the law.

"Founded Upon Tariff."
It is charged that this so-called great American industry founded upon the tariff enacted for the protection of American labor from the competition of the pauper labor of Europe, is speedily and effectually excluding American labor, skilled and unskilled from its employment and has again and again advertised that Syrians, Poles and Roumanians are preferred as its employees.

It is charged that the steel corporation not only degrades labor by low wages and a twelve-hour workday but denies a day of rest by enforcing work seven days in the week that it tyrannically prevents the organization of its workers to elevate the standard of living and suppresses and prevents free speech and public meetings, so that it boycotts American labor and has enforced decrees of banishment from communities where it dominates.

In conclusion, it is charged that the steel corporation is organized illegally, dominant and defiant with no respect for legal right and human right and with utter indifference as to human capacity for endurance and for deaths and injury of its toilers, that its continued methods are a menace not only to labor, but to the business men outside of its baneful power and influence.

Curtiss Says He Will Fly.

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 7.—Declaring that he knew nothing of any injunction issued against him on behalf of the Wright Brothers, Glenn H. Curtiss, who arrived in Los Angeles from the East today asserted that he would enter as many of the events at the aviation meet next week as possible.

Many Arrests at El Paso.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 7.—Police Chief Jenkin's annual report might be construed to show that one-tenth of El Paso's population was arrested last year. His figures submitted today, show that the total arrests for the year were 1,222. The city's population is a little more than 50,000.

CITY HALL SCENE OF ENJOYABLE OCCASION.

The Woodmen of the World and Woodmen Circle installed officers at the city hall last night and the installation was one of the most enjoyable and beneficial occasions of the kind ever transpiring in the city. The program as rendered showed much time and care to have been devoted to it and included Woodmen of state and national reputations.

On entering the auditorium a reception was given after which the members of the two lodges registered at the table where a delicious brand of punch was served. Order was then called and the program given. The address of welcome was made by Hon. T. D. McKeown and was responded to by Mrs. M. J. Meadows of Oklahoma City who is the state manager of the Circle.

The drill by sixteen girls was very commendable and the reading by Miss Lena West and the solo by Miss Ruby Eaton deserve special mention. Music by the orchestra was excellent. The Circle ladies took part in a splendid drill.

Billy Hughes of St. Louis, National W. O. W. lecturer delivered a lecture on "Fraternalism" which, it is needless to say, was well received.

Mr. Hughes has visited many camps and said that he had seen more fraternity in the local camp than in any other which he has visited.

R. L. Forgan, state manager of the W. O. W. spoke on "Statistics" of which he gave many on Woodcraft in this state among which was that there were nearly 28,000 members of the Woodmen of the World in Oklahoma.

Following the program the Circle installed the following officers: Guardian—Mrs. Minerva Sneed; Advisor—Mrs. J. W. Reed; Clerk—Miss Beulah Havlin; Banker—Mrs. Oia Kile; Attendant—Mrs. Lillie West; Chaplain—Mrs. Julia Pool; Inner Sentinel—Mrs. Robertson; Outer Sentinel—Mrs. Fannie Dismukes.

Drill Captain—Mrs. Beulah Neath-erington.

The officers installed by the W. O. W. follow:

Consul Commander—D. L. Middleton.

Advisor—Lieutenant—Jos. Deckert.

Banker—C. T. Loman.

Clerk—L. T. Walters.

St. Louis Judge Declares Personal Injury Verdict "Excessive."

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 7.—Ignoring the declaration of Judge Sale that $2,000 was "a grossly excessive verdict," in the case of Miss Eva F. Riden, 18 years old, in her suit for damages against the United Railways, a jury in Judge Sale's court, where the case was taken on change of venue from Judge Sale, returned a verdict for that amount today.

Miss Riden sued for $7,500 damages for injuries received when a Creve Coeur car left the track on the curve near Delmar garden, June 7, 1908. She said she received a severe nervous shock, which has caused her to lose much sleep and that what sleep she does get is accompanied by unpleasant dreams.

GIRLS PAY FINES IN PENNIES.

Strikers Amused at Clerk's Spending Half Hour Counting 2,500.

New York, Jan. 7.—Four striking shirtwaist makers, who were fined $25 collectively today, for their activities as pickets, paid their fines in pennies. It took the entire clerical force of the court nearly half an hour to count the 2,500 pennies. Meanwhile the girls looked on with amusement.

Bull Clique Enters Ring With Baying Orders and Brokers Bid Wildly in Effort to Stall the Tide.

New York, Jan. 6.—Cotton bears sunk their claws deeply into the hides of the bulls today and for a time had them whipped to a standstill before the stampede of the bulls, whose campaign has been on the verge of crumbling was over. Prices had fallen 42 points, or $2.10 a bale on top of yesterday's sensational slump of 60 points or $3 a bale. The bull clique flooded the ring with buying orders and had some of its sharpest brokers bidding wildly for cotton in an effort to stall the tide of liquidation from all sources. But until the bears were satisfied with the fruits of victory and began to cover the bulls were out fought. The demand from both the shorts and the support given the market by the bull element then brought about a rather substantial recovery in values.

E. G. Scales entered the pit in the late afternoon and distributed buying orders which caused a rush of shorts to cover and prices went up sharply.

The May option dropped to 15.27c against a high price yesterday of 16.24c which put it about 120 points or $6.20 a bale under its high record of the season, made during the holiday season. It is in this position, and in July that the bulk of the bull holdings is concentrated and the bear raid was directed chiefly against these options.

Public Loses Trying to Win.

The public has undoubtedly lost quite heavily on the recent tumble in prices. There was a good outside demand between 15c and 16c during December, and when the market crossed the latter level toward the end of that month and predictions of higher price were made by the bulls the public held on to its cotton. It was realized by the bulls however that the market was honeycombed with stop orders to sell around 16c and they made a determined stand to prevent the market reacting to that level. The weight of cotton that was thrown upon the market was too heavy when the public tried to bag its paper profits with the result that prices have declined 100 points, or $5 a bale, in two days. This tremendous break in prices seems to have arisen solely from speculative causes as spot cotton in the South has shown no inclination to follow the decline in futures, and there has been no let up in the milling demand. It may develop, however that spinners will hold off now that there has been a material decline, but the bull position at present does not seem as weak as surface conditions might be thought to indicate.

New York, Jan. 7.—Theresa Mahoney and Elizabeth R. Dinsmore, partners in a fashionable dressmaking establishment, pleaded guilty in the United States circuit court today to a charge of participation in the alleged conspiracy of smuggling costly gowns and dress goods to this country in "sleeper trunks." The maximum penalty is two years in prison and a fine of $10,000.

There are twenty-seven other dress makers under indictment and it is understood that the Mahoney and Dinsmore women have agreed to tell the government the inside story of the smuggling scheme in view of their sentences being suspended until July.

DISTRICT JUDGE QUITS BENCH TO MAKE RACE.

Do's Not Believe in Holding One Office and Trying for Another.
Hoffman Succeeds.

Guthrie Ok, Jan 6—Because he is
a candidate for governor and did not believe in holding one office while
seeking another, J. B. A. Robertson, Judge of the Lincoln-Pottawatomie
county district court, tendered his resignation to Governor Haskell this afternoon, and it was accepted. Col Hoffman, chairman of the state board
of affairs whose resignation as such
was tendered to the governor Dec 31
was named as Judge Robertson's successor, and it is understood that the vacancy on the State board of Affairs
has been tendered to John J. Gerlach,
banker of Woodward. Col Hoffman
severs his connection with the Board of Affairs Saturday, and will become District Judge Jan 17, when Judge
Robertson's resignation is effective.
"I am candidate for governor," said Judge Robertson after leaving the state house, "and do not think a person is justified in holding one office
while seeking another, particularly
when the office he occupies necessitates the construction and application of the law. This is my only reason for leaving the bench."

The situation should be cleared of possible influence so far as it can be done. Were I a candidate to succeed myself, I am frank enough to say that such a rule would hardly
be entirely different.

Gov Haskell appointed Judge Robertson in the Lincoln-Pottawatomie
Judge Mahon of Shawnee, suspended by order of the court. His campaign for governor will open as soon as

Bell Interests Will Have Depositions Taken in St. Louis.

Cleveland, Jan 7—The next move
in the fight to prevent the Bell Telephone Company from absorbing the independent companies will be made in St. Louis.

Attorney H. B. McGraw and his associates, who have been acting as
counsel for the minority stockholders
in the independent companies already sold, have been served with
Thursday in St. Louis on behalf of the Bell interests.

Inquiries Will Be Made to Discover

Washington, Jan 7—Following that
which resulted in the discovery of underweighing of sugar at the port
made at other ports where sugar is
brought in.

Large quantities of sugar come into the United States at San Francisco and at Boston and smaller amount at various other ports. The effort to determine whether there had been underweighing at other places than
New York will be begun as soon as
arrangements can be made.

TOO FIERCE TO COMPARE WITH AMERICA.

Even Former Elections in England
Struggle.

London, Jan 6—Hard-fought political struggles have been known in the United Kingdom before, but nothing equalling the present contest has been seen. About 1,000 speeches are delivered every twenty-four hours.
The sale of Robert Blatchford's pamphlet, "The German Menace," reached more than 1,000,000 copies. It sells
at a penny (2 cents) a copy and the author gets 50 per cent of the proceeds. Fresh posters are going up daily all over the country and printers, lithographers and bill posters are working day and night.

The boardings look like Swiss sunset views. Personal posters, representing every candidate, are displayed wherever room can be found for them. It is estimated that colored
bills emanating from London alone
fill 2,000,000 square feet of wall
space. They range in size from 2 by 3 to 10 by 15 feet.

Thousands of Leaflets.
One of the most notable free trade
cartoons is that painted by T. B.
Kennington which is reproduced by
the Tory organization. It requires nine printings and is distributed in 2,000 centers of population. The cheapest copies can be produced at 27 shillings (875¢ a dozen). Conservatives and Liberals together are distributing 100,000,000 leaflets, exclusive of handbills and hints to speakers, which themselves constitute a formidable mass of literature.

The election four years ago cost
in printing, advertising, stationery
postage and telegrams £418,000 ($2-080,000). The approaching election will cost more than twice as much
not only because each party is printing more but because the official returns do not cover the expenditures
of organizations not directed by the
candidates.

As a Summer Breeze.

In respect to personalities the campaign is the hottest ever experienced.
Among the words making up the lex-
icon of the contest are liar "slander," vampire, conspirator and
"wrecker."
Sir Edward H. Carson caused a laugh in the country this morning by quoting David Lloyd-George and Winston Churchill the heavenly
twins at various places in Ireland
the struggle is marked by stormy
meetings demolished windows and
heads.

An American national election
which is supposed to be a cyclone,
compared with this is as a soft summer breeze.

Washington, Jan 7—Dr. Frederick A. Cook's Polar records are enroute to Washington to be examined
by the National Geographic Society.
According to information sent to Prof. J. H. Gore, the documents were started from Copenhagen on December 21, which would get them to Washington about the end of this
week.

Prof. Gore, Rear Admiral Pills-
bury and Dr. W. M. Hayes of the Geological Survey will examine the
papers and make a report early this month. Yesterday President William D. Moore of the society let it be known that he will not be a candidate for re-election. Some see in this one of the reflections of the Polar controversy. Prof. Moore has been president of the National Geographic Society five terms. In his latest declining a further election, he expressed the hope that a successor
would be chosen before the Polar fight became an influence in the politics of the society.

New York, Jan 7—"With Samuel
Gompers and John Mitchell not only
participants but moving spirits in the movement, as well as officers in good standing in the Civic Federation, I cannot reconcile my own mind with
what seems to me to be such an extremely inconsistent proposal."

John Kirby, Jr., of Dayton, O., president of the National Association
of Manufacturers, in a letter to Seth Low, president of the National Civic Federation, thus frankly expresses his opinion that the manufacturers' association should not accept the invitation to participate in the coming Civic Federation conference at Washington.

A PLEASANT OCCASION

Editor Felter of the Red Eagle was host at a banquet given at the New Years day in honor of his little city and his country correspondents and to which was invited
the editorial fraternity of Pontotoc
county.

The News editor on account of his
enforced absence from the county
could not attend, was regretfully
unable to attend.

The following is the report of the meeting by Editor Norrell of the Ada Democrat.

"The Red Eagle has a large and enthusiastic corps of correspondents
and invited the entire staff to meet at Red Saturday at a banquet given by the paper at the Nichols hotel.
The Democrat man was one of a few other friends who attended, and
the writer, Mrs. Shanafelt, Misses
Clure and Robert Wimbush were
there from Ada.

Editor Felter is an excellent host,
and made his guests feel very much
at home. The dinner was simply fine
and needless to say we did ample
justice to it.

In the afternoon Mr. Felter insisted that the writer become one of the three judges who should award the
prize—a fine sewing machine—to the
correspondent who made the best
record during the past three months.
This was a rather knotty problem, but the decision was made in favor of Mrs. Kennon, who writes items from the ranches south of Red.
However, C. L. Berger of Vanoss was
a very close second.

We like this idea of a family reunion of the staff of a paper, and sometimes in the near future hope to have the correspondents of the Democrat together in a similar gathering.

MURPHY OFFERS MANY BILLS.

of Quick-Divorce Lawyers.

Washington, Jan 7—Representative Murphy of Missouri covered a wide range of subjects in a bunch
of bills which he dropped into the house hopper today. His headliner
was a bill which would exclude from
the mails any paper or magazine
which contained an advertisement of
a get a quick divorce attorney. Any publisher who would offer for the
mail a paper or magazine containing
these advertisements would be fined not less than $300 nor more than $1,000 and sent to prison for from
six months to two years.

Mr. Murphy also wants the franking privilege extended to vice presidents-elect members of congress-elect, and delegates-elect. He also took a shot at papers which contain advertisements for fortune tellers, clairvoyants and spiritualists. In one of his bills it is provided that
all publications which contain advertisements for this class should

W. C. Brown of New York Central Talks of Tuft Plans.

New York, Jan 7—"I know pretty well what the bill will provide, and I can say that it need not alarm
the investor nor embarrass any railroad that wants to do business in a straight, forward and orderly manner," was the assuring statement
made today by W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central lines.
Mr. Brown was one of the six railroad presidents who conferred with President Taft yesterday on the railroad legislation which the president will recommend to congress next week in a message on interstate commerce.

Wall street and the railroad world
have been keenly interested in the coming railroad legislation, and President Brown's declaration allayed in great measure the fears that the message would prove embarrassing
to the present control of the country's carriers.

Aged Missourian Blows Head Off by Dropping Weight on Trigger.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan 7—Jacob Mc-Cauley, a pioneer resident of Agency,
Mo., committed suicide today by arranging a shotgun loaded with buckshot in such a manner that when a weight was dropped on the trigger
the charge blew off the top of his head. The suicide was 75 years old and a large property owner.

In Cannon's Home Town.

Washington, Jan 7—The next outbreak against Uncle Joe Cannon
will come from Senator Gore of Oklahoma who is scheduled to deliver a speech at a Jackson banquet to be held Friday in the speaker's home town, Danville, Ill. The blind senator from Oklahoma is the only speaker on the program and he will be given a free reign.

Office.

One of the best citizens of the Franklin community was in the county judge's office today reporting a serious accident near Franklin late yesterday afternoon. Twelve men on a wagon were accidentally thrown
into a deep gulch and all injured—
one perhaps fatally, and all the others so badly mangled that their iden-
the reporter left the community this morning for Ada.

It is said that the cause of the accident was very swift and reckless driving down hill, the front wheel of
the large wagon hitting a huge boulder that lay near the roadside.
The wagon at once and before a single man could alight, went over a steep cliff crushing all beneath it.

A belated wood-hauler who chanced to be near by said that he noticed the wagon coming down the hill and only had time, by making haste, to clear the track before the
the occupants of the wagon, behind
the driver, were calling vociferously
to the driver to go slower, that he was endangering their lives and positions but he drove stating that the wagon was his and that he would drive as he pleased. The driver reminded them that they were his guests and were expected to silently keep their seats and not bother
the driver. About this time the accident occurred and the wagon plunged twenty-five feet into the gulch.

LATER—News has just been received that all the men on the wagon will recover except the driver and his physician state that his chances for recovery are poor. It was also learned that the twelve pas-
the vehicle was Otis B. Weaver's Water Wagon.

Steamed Chicken.

Clean and carefully wash in several
cold waters a nice fat chicken. Allow
all the water to drain out, rub half a teaspoonful of salt on the inside, then
stuff with the following: One pint of
fresh oysters without their juice, one pint of bread crumbs, butter, size of
an egg, cut in small bits, half tea-
spoonful of black pepper and one leaf
of sage crushed and sprinkled over the
mixture. Mix all well together and
moisten with half cup of the juice
taken from the oysters. After stuffing the chicken fix same as for roasting and rub a teaspoonful of salt and as much flour as will stick to it all over the outside then drop it in a deep kettle in which has been browned and is still sizzling hot a half cup of butter.
Turn the chicken often until well
browned, cover tightly and set on back
of stove to simmer and steam for two hours in its own juice. To make the
gravy chop fine and boil heart, liver
and gizzard in three fourths of a quart
of water and pour it into kettle after
the chicken has been taken up, thicken

One pint scalded milk, quarter cup
butter, two tablespoonfuls sugar, one
teaspoonful salt, one yeast cake in
quarter cup water, white of one egg,
flour to make batter. Add salt, sugar
and butter to scalded milk. When
lukewarm add yeast cake, white of
egg well beaten and flour to make batter. Beat thoroughly and let rise
an hour, then make up a stiff dough
and let it double its bulk in raising.
Make into sticks or rolls and let rise again. Start baking sticks in hot oven, and reduce heat that they may be crisp, as freshly baked crackers.

Potato Dumplings.

Grate six cold boiled white potatoes
and mix with them three tablespoonfuls of flour and two level tablespoonfuls of baking powder. Add one tablespoonful of melted butter, one beaten
egg, a little salt, and a sprinkle of
nutmeg or paprika. Form into balls, boil in salted water for about ten minutes, and serve with the following
sauce: Take one small can of tomato soup, dilute with one-quarter the amount of water, season with salt,
pepper, and a tablespoonful of grated cheese. Pour over dumplings and serve hot, hearty enough to eat without meat.

To Wash Blankets.

For two blankets take three table-
spoonfuls borax, one and one-half bars
soap, and three quarts water; dissolve
over the fire. Pour into a tub of lukewarm water, leave blankets in this
over night. Then rinse in waters of
same temperature without any rubbing until the water is clear, hang
up without wringing, being careful not to stretch the edges. When partly dry beat with rattan beater to raise the nap.

Rinsing.

When clothes are ready for rinsing
do not take the clear water first and then blue water, but plunge the hot
wring clothes into a blue water direct
and again into a final blue water, thereby causing them to undergo a bleaching process which adds much to their whiteness.

Egg Help.

Add a pinch of cream of tartar to
the whites of eggs while whipping.
This will prevent them from falling
after they are whipped.

TRIAL OF REV. VANSANT CONTINUED UNTIL JAN. 14

HOLINESS PREACHER IN COURT FOR GETTING MONEY FAISLY

Mortgages Property to Allen School Board, but the Property Was Not There.

A trial which created quite a bit of interest was that of J. R. Vansant yesterday before Justice Brown.
Vansant is a holiness preacher, but he got in court charged with securing money under false pretense. This was his preliminary trial and was continued until January 14 on account of the absence of one state witness.
The complaint against Vansant was filed by the board of education of Allen. He contracted with the board last summer to build a school house with the agreement that the board hold back 15 per cent. of his money until the work was completed. The contractor-minister needed some money and he told the members of the board about it. They refused to come through with it. The amount he wanted was $500 and he agreed to give them security on personal property for the amount.
The board also agreed to this and when the time came to collect, all the property wasn't there. The board caused his arrest for getting money under false pretense.
Vansant lives at Holdenville and was indicted during the last term of the district court for disposing of mortgaged property.

Will Lane who lives near Tyrola, was fined $25 and costs, amounting to $28.75, for carrying a pistol.

MAY BE MORE CONFESSIONS. Grand Jury Resumes Inquiry Into Sugar Fraud Cases.

New York, Jan. 4.—Investigation of the sugar under-weighing frauds was continued today by the federal grand jury and it was intimated that further indictments, possibly of important persons, might be expected soon.
Confession stories have been in the air recently and today's report had it that not only had important revelations been made by employees of the American Sugar Refining Company, five of whom were recently convicted of conspiracy to defraud, but that employees of other sugar importing firms had become convinced of the advisability of making a clean breast of it.
The grand jury also is expected to take up shortly the investigation of the alleged paper combination which the federal authorities have been looking into, following the action which led to the dissolution of the Manila company.

RABIES IN A DENVER ZOO. Four Animals Are Killed and Others May Be Dispatched.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 7.—Hydrophobia has broken out among the animals at City park zoo in Denver, and as a result four wolves already have been killed and many others are considered in danger, while a grizzly bear and two cinnamon bears are also threatened.
A large timber wolf which attacked an attendant at the zoo a few days ago was shot and its body sent to the agricultural college for examination. Today the college reported that the wolf had had hydrophobia. In the meantime three other wolves which had shown signs of rabies were destroyed.
It is feared still others will develop the disease, and that bears that were in the same inclosure with the timber wolves may be infected.

AN ICE JAM IN DENVER. Cherry Creek, Diminutive Stream, Threatens Business Section.

Denver, Jan. 7.—Cherry creek, an ordinary diminutive stream that flows through a low section of Denver, is now filled with an ice jam that alarms business men and residents.
For a quarter of a mile that stream is choked with ice that threatens to sweep all the bridges before it.
The jam is now piled high against the Logan street bridge and the back water floods many houses. A force of 100 men is trying to break the blockade. The last destructive ice jam in Cherry creek was in 1878.
Price of Ranch Stolen.
Sacramento, Calif., Jan. 7.—Frank Parla, a San Jose rancher, who had drawn the money from a local bank to pay for a ranch, was held up last night by three masked highwaymen and robbed of $9,433.35 in cash.

Examination Called for February 5 and Applicants Come From 17 Districts.

The following letter was received yesterday by Postmaster Young from the supervisor of census. The letter is dated McAlester and is self explanatory.
I am advised by the department that you have been selected to conduct the examination for census enumerators of Pontotoc county on the 5th of February, 1910, they being advised to appear before you on that date. There will be applicants from 17 districts but I cannot say as to the number there will be from each district. Kindly advise me as early as possible how many you can accommodate at one time that we may advise the applicants at what hours to appear. Also advise where you will conduct the examination. If not room in the postoffice I would suggest that you secure the use of the school building, that being the plan we will adopt in this city. Thanking you for an early reply, I remain, yours very truly,
S. A. Hawk, Supervisor of Census.
At this time Postmaster Young does not know where the examination will be held, but will advise through this paper when a decision is made.

HON. HAL MULBROW. Distinguished Grandmaster of Mason- ic Lodge and Prominent Demo- crat in City.

Hon. Hal Mulbrow of Tishomingo, grandmaster of the Masonic Lodge of Oklahoma, was a very acceptable visitor at the office of the News Tuesday. While Mr. Mulbrow is comparatively a young man, he ranks as a Masonic giant.
This distinguished citizen spoke very highly of the personnel of the Ada Masonic lodge and of the Ada citizenship in general. Referring to the state political situation, in which great interest was expressed, he declared that naturally Johnston county was solidly behind the candidacy that personally he was going to exert his utmost efforts in behalf of its distinguished citizen, the Hon.
Wm. H. Murray for governor and of his election.

Mrs. B. A. Mason Ill.

Mrs. B. A. Mason has been seriously ill for a week, but is now thought to be improved. The occurrence of Mrs. Mason's illness was probably the result of the strain and fatigue occasioned on account of her constant vigil at the side of her little daughter, Eloise, during her late excessive illness, but from which she has now fully recovered. It was on account of the illness in this family that required Miss Irene Mason to suspend her visit with relatives and among the society of Austin, Tex., and to return home. Her arrival was last Thursday.

MAY HELP INDIAN FIGHTERS. Representative Scott Wants Kansas Volunteers on Pension Rolls.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Representative Scott of Kansas introduced a bill which would place the Eightieth and Ninetieth regiments of Kansas volunteer cavalry on the regular rolls of the Civil war veterans. Although these regiments saw hard service in the Indian wars of 1867-9 the surviving members are not legally entitled to pensions.

Majority Are in Favor of Calling Session to Consider Tax and Fee Systems.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 6.—Gov. Haskell all has received about fifty replies from members of the legislature, a vast majority of whom favor an immediate special session to consider the questions of taxation and limiting officers' fees. A number have called on person and given their views. Democratic members are practically unanimous for the session, while republicans heard from are equally divided.
Senator Warren of Holdenville, Representatives Jacobs of Sequoyah, Sexton of Payne and Partridge of Cherokee, all republicans are opposed to the call. Senator Potter of Okmulgee and Representative Murphy of Oklahoma and Humphreys of Atoka, also republicans, favor it, while representative Helm of Okmulgee republican, announces that he will call a mass meeting and find out about it.
Senator Clarence Davis of Sapulpa is opposed to a special session, which is the position also taken by Representative Magee of Shawnee.
Representatives Boyle of Haskell and Gilmer of Ardmore, were callers today, both favoring the session.
Mr. Gilmer, who is a candidate for state auditor, and Col. Sneed of Lawton, member of the board of managers for the Oklahoma Confederate home to be erected at Ardmore, asked the governor to include with the recommendations an appropriation of $15,000 or $20,000 for maintenance of the home. It is being erected by private subscription, and will cost when completed $25,000.

J. D. Rockefeller, Jr., Would Have "White Slave" Inquiry Thorough.

New York, Jan. 4.—"I am heart and soul in this investigation," said John D. Rockefeller, Jr., today as he entered the criminal court building to talk over the plans for the "white slave" investigation.
Mr. Rockefeller was yesterday selected as foreman of the grand jury which is to make the investigation.
"If these stories are true," continued Mr. Rockefeller, referring to the allegations of wholesale traffic in women which have been given wide publicity of late, "the truth about them should be definitely known; if they are false, they should be silenced forever."
The investigation proper will be taken up by the grand jury on Monday next.

Expert Farmers in Demand.

Washington, Jan. 7.—"Expert farmers wanted, salary $1,200 per annum."
The Indian service is making this offer to agricultural students who are sufficiently equipped to train the braves on Indian reservations in raising farm products. The appointments will be restricted to graduates of agricultural colleges.
The successful applicants will be designated by Indian Commissioner Valentine to manage model demonstration farms on reservations in arid and semi-arid regions of the west.
